Thank You Very Much!

ADORATION AT HOLY CROSS: I am working to formally organize the adorers who spend time in the presence of the Eucharist exposed during Adoration each Friday here at Holy Cross. We are privileged to have adoration each Friday beginning with the conclusion of our 8:15am Friday morning Mass (school Mass during the school year) until Benediction at 2:30pm at the end of our school day. During times of Eucharistic Adoration, the exposed Blessed Sacrament is never permitted to be left unattended. As such, the Church requires that for us to have Adoration there are AT ALL TIMES - ALWAYS - to be a minimum of two people present. In other words, if we cannot guarantee two people will be present at all times, then the Church does not permit us to have public adoration. I write this here, because as noted two weeks ago at Sunday Mass, we have had problems fulfilling this mandate.

In the face of this, there really are two options for Adoration here at Holy Cross. Either we cease the Friday adoration, or we ensure we have enough adorers. In talking to Msgr., we are CONFIDENT our wonderful and faithful community here at Holy Cross will be able to fulfill this requirement for us to have Adoration! Already, almost all the spots have been taken, but there remain a couple openings, particularly in the 8:30-9:30am, 11:30am-12:30pm, and the 1:30-2:30pm slots. If you are able to help at these times, or if you're willing to be a sub for those who can't make their scheduled hour at any of the times throughout the day on Friday, please email me at frjbaker@gmail.com and I will get in touch with you as soon as I can!!

Blessings to you! Fr. Joe

Chris Stefanick Show

What "following Christ" means for Gen Z | Chris Stefanick Show
Meet my buddy Fr. Peter. He's been working in college campus ministry for 16 years! So if you work with young adults or know one who's struggling with their faith, you don't want to miss his nuggets of wisdom about the deeper questions that young people want answered, how the culture's idea of happiness actually pushes people apart, and why campus ministry needs to look weird sometimes.

We can't forget the young people staying true to the Church in today's world. They need all the support they can get.

If you want to follow Christ these days, the stakes are higher than ever. Whether you're getting the stink eye in the grocery store (true story) or losing friends because of your faith, you face a culture growing more aggressive by the day. But there's hope. Fr. Peter's here to tell us why.

HAPPENINGS FROM PRO-LIFE

In May we delivered over 1,800 diapers to 12 families with 15 children in diapers. Our children are making progress – one is now fully potty-trained, and twins are now potty-trained daytime! Great job!

We arranged for two of our families to have supplemental food thru the St. Vincent de Paul food pantry at Holy Cross. Thank you so much!

Thank you to all of our special donors and prayer warriors who make our work possible! May God protect you and bless you!

We pray for all our benefactors, those we do pro-life work with and all the people and families that we have helped.

God bless you all.
