THE FEAST OF

Epiphany of the Lord

When Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea, in the days of King Herod, behold, magi from the east arrived in Jerusalem, saying, "Where is the newborn king of the Jews? We saw his star at its rising and have come to do him homage."

Mt 2: 1-2

A Reflection for Epiphany

Live the Eucharist: A Reflection for Epiphany Msgr. Peter J. Vaghi

We are still joyfully celebrating the Christmas season even as we begin a new year and a new month. And the Christmas season, in all its mystery and joy, is a wonderful time to ponder this most fundamental dimension of our faith — the blessed Eucharist — the “source and summit” of our lives as Christians. It is, after all, the life of Christ that we celebrate and consume in the Blessed Sacrament.

At every Mass, we recall and ponder in our hearts and minds the assuring words of Jesus from Saint John’s gospel: “Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise you on the last day.” How overwhelmingly privileged we are to be nourished week in and week out, and at daily Mass, by our living Lord Jesus—life in Christ. Holy Communion plants, as it were, the fertile seed of the resurrection deep within us. This seed will grow, silently but assuredly, until it sprouts forth and yields the flower and fruit of life eternal, the pledge of eternal life promised to us.

‘Do This In Memory of Me’

As Jesus took, bless, broke and gave the bread at the Last Supper, and as Jesus himself went immediately thereafter where he was taken, blessed, broken and given, so too you and I are challenged in this dismissal in a similar way. We are challenged to be taken, blessed, broken and given, in effect, to put into action in our own concrete and daily lives, by the grace and transforming power of this Holy Sacrament, the Love we have just celebrated.

Food for the Journey

There is a beautiful hymn, perhaps you know it, entitled: “Ubi caritas et amor, Deus ibi est.” (Where charity and love are, there is God.) Holy Communion is the feast of love, the love of a cross, the love of humble service. As we are transformed more and more in communion with Jesus in the Eucharist, we take on his love in our actions. Where charity and love are, there is he. The Eucharist makes him visible and possible in our lives. It is how we live the Mass.

Live the Mass!

The Eucharist is, after all, “the source and summit of our lives” as followers of Jesus Christ. That is why we cannot live authentic Catholic lives without the Eucharist—lives committed to loving as Jesus loves. With the Eucharist, the Bread of Life, Jesus gave his disciples, and each of us, a power of love that knows no limits and that is efficacious in every human condition. All we are and all that we become are rooted in this sacrifice of love. The Eucharist is both gift and command. It rests at the very heart of our spiritual lives as his followers, followers committed to humble service, sacrificial love after his example, living and pulsating members of his body, a body broken out of love for us in the Upper Room and on Calvary itself and in the upper rooms of our lives.
