Baptism of the Lord

After all the people had been baptized and Jesus also had been baptized and was praying, heaven was opened and the Holy Spirit descended upon him in bodily form like a dove.

Luke 3:21-22

THE BAPTISM OF THE LORD

Then Jesus came from Galilee to John at the Jordan to be baptized by him. John tried to prevent him, saying, "I need to be baptized by you, and yet you are coming to me?" Jesus said to him in reply, "Allow it now, for thus it is fitting for us to fulfill all righteousness." Then he allowed him. After Jesus was baptized, he came up from the water and behold, the heavens were opened, and he saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove [and] coming upon him. And a voice came from the heavens, saying, "This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased" (Mt. 3:13-17).

Jesus along the Jordan

The Gospel passage begins with a geographical annotation: Jesus goes from Galilee to the Jordan to be baptized by John the Baptist. On His arrival, Jesus does not declare Himself to be the Messiah. He does not preach. Instead, He stands with everyone else there, wanting to be baptized, thus manifesting his solidarity with the sinful people. Jesus does not isolate Himself, but He goes out among the people, even those marked by the wounds of sin. He puts Himself at risk by being with them, just as He put Himself at risk by becoming Man in the womb of Mary. There is, therefore, a consistent design in how Jesus "moves about" along His "itinerary of salvation".

John the Baptist

"I need to be baptized by you, and yet you are coming to me?" the Baptist says on seeing Jesus. We witness the prophet's bewilderment who just a few verses earlier expressed himself thus: "The one who is coming after me is mightier than I. I am not worthy to carry his sandals ..." (Mt 3:11). It seems to be the same bewilderment Peter experienced in Caesarea when, having reproved Jesus after the revelation of the Passion, death and resurrection that awaited Him, saying, "God forbid, Lord!", hears the Lord's reply, "Get behind me, Satan! You are an obstacle to me. You are not thinking as God does, but as human beings do" (Mt 16:22-23). Another time was in the Upper Room when Peter refused to allow Jesus to wash his feet (cf. Jn. 13:6-8). Reactions such as the Baptist's and Peter's reveal our discomfort at seeing Jesus so weak and yielding.

The Heavens Opened

Jesus' choice is confirmed with the opening of the heavens, with the gift of the Spirit and the voice of the Father that seals Jesus' mission: "This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased". With the opening of the heavens, "justice" cancels the separation between humanity and God, bringing us back to the dawn of creation when the Spirit hovered over the waters. In Jesus, God the Father shows us the New Man, His beloved, the One who pleases Him. It was as if He were saying: "You make me so happy. I am so proud of you". This happiness exists in each one of us because each of us bears God's image within. We are made in his "image and likeness" (Gn. 1:26). No one can ever erase this image for "God looked at everything he had made, and found it very good" (Gn. 1:31). Jesus' coming tells us that God is interested in us. It's like He is saying, "With you, I want to begin a new story of salvation, a new beginning". We are made new to the extent that we learn to recognize life as a gift of love and that we live in this Love.

Our mission is to bring the Pope's word, image and gestures all over the world.

Happy New Year!

Thank you to all who donated items to Kris Kringle 2025. It's now time to start shopping and collecting for 2026! If you received any gifts this year (including from Kris Kringle) that you don't want, we would love to have them for next year! If you like to clearance shop, I would love your help restocking! Christmas clearance items are perfect for Kris Kringle. We always need coffee mugs, tumblers, bath & body products, lip gloss/chapsticks, nail polish, dog/cat toys, dad/grandpa stuff (tape measures, screwdrivers, ice scrapers, flashlights, etc), like new fleece blankets/stuffed animals/games, winter accessories, and items that could be made into baking or movie night gifts. $4 is the highest price point, so I never exceed that amount when I purchase an item.

If you have items, (new, not used), to donate or you come across some good deals while you're out and about, let me know! I hope your students in Kindergarten through 8th grade enjoyed shopping this year. It's fun to see how excited they get to shop for their families!

Thanks so much!
