Eucharistic Revival

First Commandment of the Law: Love God with our whole being.

Loving God is not just something very important. It is the one absolutely important thing, the one for which man was created, and so it is his fundamental task on earth and will be his sole occupation forever in heaven. It is the means whereby he attains happiness and complete fulfillment. Its absence makes man's life empty. A soul who led a life of much physical suffering, left behind some very pertinent words: What frustrates a life is not pain but lack of love. The one great failure in life is to have lived without loving: it may be that many other things have been achieved, but what is really important, namely, loving God, is left undone.

We read how a Pharisee came to Jesus and asked him a question to test him, to twist his words: Teacher, which is the great commandment in the law? Jesus replied: You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul and with all your mind. This is the greatest and first commandment. God is not asking for a bit of room in our heart, in our soul or in our mind, for just a share in our love: he wants it all – not just a little love, some part of our life, but all we have. God is All, the Only One, the Absolute, and must be loved 'ex toto corde,' absolutely, without limit.

Christ, who comes to save us, loves us with a very personal love. He is a jealous lover, asking for all our love. He expects us to give him what we have, to follow that vocation to which he called us one day, and He continues to seek us out in the middle of the chores and circumstances pleasant or otherwise – of our daily lives. God has a right to ask us: Are you thinking about me? Are you aware of me? Do you look to me as your support? Do you seek me as the Light of your life, as your shield, as your all?

Every circumstance should be an opportunity for loving God with our whole heart, with our whole soul, with our whole mind, with our whole strength and life, not only when we pay him a visit in church or when we receive Holy Communion, but also in our work, in our sufferings and failures, at times of unexpected good news. We have to say to him often in the depths of our heart: Jesus, I love you, I accept this difficulty serenely for you, I will finish this task well because I know that it will please you, knowing that it is not all the same to you if I do it well or badly. Now we can say: Jesus, I love you; teach me to love you even more.

SOCIETY OF ST. VINCENT DE PAUL

The Society of St. Vincent de Paul is inspired by Gospel values and leads men and women to join together to grow spiritually by offering person-to-person service to the needy and suffering in the tradition of its founder, Blessed Frederick Ozanam and its patron, St. Vincent de Paul.

The Holy Cross/St. Matthew Conference is blessed by the generosity of our parishioners who make this outreach possible. Your collective food and generous financial contributions enabled us to assist 1100+ individuals this past year throughout the greater Champaign county this fiscal year. Thank you to all those parishioners whose financial support and various staple items made this possible! We want to also express our special thanks to the students at Holy Cross, St. Matthew and St. Thomas More for all the thought and efforts they put into their respective canned food drives, special events, and gift bags they provided throughout the year on behalf of those in need! Please know that you have our deepest appreciation for all your thoughtfulness and caring efforts!

Please continue your support and keep the members of St. Vincent de Paul Society and those they help in your prayers. Our donation poor boxes are located in the vestibule of the Church, and during the months of November / December we would greatly appreciate donations of boxed cereals / canned (or plastic bottles of spaghetti sauce or soups as well as personal care items such as toothpaste, toothbrushes, hair soaps, or deodorant sticks.

Last but certainly not least, please also note that we are actively seeking additional volunteer members to grow our SVPD team. We currently meet twice a month on Saturday morning (9-10 a.m.) to provide "drive through" food pantry assistance to those in need within our local community. Should you wish additional information either to join us or to further inquire about the assistance we offer, please feel free to contact the parish office or reach out to Julie Franklin, SVPD President @ (309) 826-5370.

OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST, THE KING OF THE UNIVERSE

When the world ends, we are told that God is going to focus on one thing: How did we care for the poor, the sick, the suffering? Nothing else will matter. Just how we treated who Jesus called "the least" among us.
