Eucharistic Revival

EXCERPT FROM A Eucharistic Christmas: ADVENT MEDITATIONS ON THE PRESENCE OF CHRIST

Talk to Jesus

At Mass do we really take the opportunity to talk to Christ? Is there any more intimate moment to do this than upon receiving him in the Eucharist? If we miss the intimacy of receiving him who has given himself completely to us, we fail to draw upon the power that lies right under our noses, right in our own tradition. The Church gives us so many avenues toward peace and intimacy, but we find it especially in the sacramental intimacy with the Lord that we have in the Eucharist.

Rather than spending our days rushing about, nervously talking to ourselves about what is going on or going wrong, let's take the opportunity to deepen our communion with the Lord whom we have received in Holy Communion. This ongoing communion with the Lord takes our prayer into a real relationship.

This may sound pious, but try it. We can have the fruit of union with Jesus and can continue with him personally in words or in wordless love rather than just thinking about him or forgetting about him altogether. It might seem impossible because of all our obligations and preoccupations and our tendency to become absorbed in them. It might seem that it would require enormous willpower and self-discipline, which I know I lack. But for God all things are possible.

- Fr. Thomas Ackliln, O.S.B.

Thought for reflection: There are a million reasons to be distracted when we receive communion. But what an opportunity we miss! Receiving Communion is really entering into communion with Jesus – it's not just an action; it is a key part of a relationship. This Advent when you go to Mass, try to spend a few minutes beforehand thinking of what you are about to do. More specifically, think about who you are going to receive. Jesus's Body becomes part of your body. What does that mean to you?

Oh Jesus, present in the Blessed Sacrament, I'm sorry for the many distractions that have kept me from receiving you worthily in the past. I pray that your Holy Spirit will teach me more about this sacrament. Help me to think about you during the week and to look forward to this time of communion with you. I can hardly begin to understand the degree of union you want with me – body and soul. But I want to learn.

DEVOTION AND MASS: Please join our parish family on Wednesday evenings for Devotion and Mass.

The Devotion begins at 5:30 p.m. in the church, followed by Mass at 6:00 p.m.

SOCIETY OF ST. VINCENT DE PAUL

The Society of St. Vincent de Paul is inspired by Gospel values and leads men and women to join together to grow spiritually by offering person-to-person service to the needy and suffering in the tradition of its founder, Blessed Frederick Ozanam and its patron, St. Vincent de Paul.

The Holy Cross/St. Matthew Conference is blessed by the generosity of our parishioners who make this outreach possible. Your collective food and generous financial contributions enabled us to assist 1100+ individuals this past year throughout the greater Champaign county this fiscal year. Thank you to all those parishioners whose financial support and various staple items made this possible! We want to also express our special thanks to the students at Holy Cross, St. Matthew and St. Thomas More for all the thought and efforts they put into their respective canned food drives, special events, and gift bags they provided throughout the year on behalf of those in need! Please know that you have our deepest appreciation for all your thoughtfulness and caring efforts!

Please continue your support and keep the members of St. Vincent de Paul Society and those they help in your prayers. Our donation poor boxes are located in the vestibule of the Church, and during the months of November / December we would greatly appreciate donations of boxed cereals / canned (or plastic bottles of spaghetti sauce or soups as well as personal care items such as toothpaste, toothbrushes, hair soaps, or deodorant sticks.

Last but certainly not least, please also note that we are actively seeking additional volunteer members to grow our SVDP team. We currently meet twice a month on Saturday morning (9-10 a.m.) to provide "drive through" food pantry assistance to those in need within our local community. Should you wish additional information either to join us or to further inquire about the assistance we offer, please feel free to contact the parish office or reach out to Julie Franklin, SVDP President @ (309) 826-5370.

FORMED THE CATHOLIC FAITH ON DEMAND.

ADVENT

"It's beginning to look a lot like Christmas," or at least that's the assumption based on that familiar holiday song. But what does that look like at your house? Most of us anticipate the great sales at the mall on the day after Thanksgiving, string lights on the outside of our house, and decorating the inside of our homes. But how exactly are we preparing our hearts for the greatest gift we've ever been given? Through an exploration of the mystery of the Incarnation, the Virgin Birth, and the events surrounding the arrival of Jesus, this Advent study offers an opportunity to experience the joy of the true meaning of Christmas.

ADVENTUS: A SPIRITUAL PILGRIMAGE

On behalf of the Augustine Institute, we are offering Adventus: A Spiritual Pilgrimage to everyone this Advent and Christmas Season. In light of the separation we face as communities, this special documentary allows Catholics all around the world to unite and make a spiritual pilgrimage to the Holy Land to see the places associated with Christ's Birth.

SPONSOR OF THE WEEK

The advertisements that appear completely defray all publishing costs with which the church would otherwise be burdened. Please patronize these sponsors as a thank you for their kind generosity.
