Church of the Exaltation of the Holy Cross

Consecration to St. Joseph

From Msgr. Brownsey...

When I was confirmed in 1976, the latest "Church Fad" was not to confuse children by asking them to take a confirmation name. Some of you remember the days when we were de-emphasizing the importance of canonized saints: we removed or whitewashed the statues. We ignored, diluted, or secularized the devotions, litanies, and chaplets. And so I did not choose a patron saint for my confirmation and, in fact, had no patron saint at all until I was 26 years old when it was explained to me the importance of having a patron saint. Not growing up knowing any saints, the only ones I knew were St. Anthony, St. Francis, and St. Joseph. St. Anthony and St. Francis had been presented to me as drippy, sappy and I didn't see what they could possibly offer, so I chose St. Joseph by default. I didn't really have much devotion to him other than admiring him at Christmas time. About 30 years later I would look back and see just how often and how boldly St. Joseph was trying to establish a friendship with me.

In 1993 he introduced me to St. Andre Bessette at St. Joseph's Oratory in Montreal and in the coming years, St. Andre would constantly send me to St. Joseph. When the Bradley Newman center was threatened with closure because of financial difficulties, St. Andre reminded me that St. Joseph was the patron of our Newman Center and that if he wanted it to succeed it would. He reminded me that Joseph is the baptismal patron of Pope Benedict who was trying to raise an army of witnesses to hope. I commissioned my students to go to their parishes and give witness to the hope that is in them and we raised $60,000, just enough to pay our bills for one year.

Later, when trying to lead my parish through the scandals of the Church, St. Joseph reminded me that he is the patron of the Universal Church and as a father, he had much experience in giving comfort and protection to his children. For the last five years I was at St. Mark's we prayed the Litany of St. Joseph after the dismissal of every single mass for the protection of the Church. Parishioners began real friendships with St. Joseph and began reporting how he was assisting them. One asked whether she could lead a parish wide consecration to St. Joseph. About a dozen parishioners went through the daily prayers at home and the weekly gatherings in church to prepare themselves for consecration. Some asked whether they could invite more friends to do it. Pretty soon, it happened about four times a year that groups of parishioners were consecrating themselves to St. Joseph and inviting others to get closer to Jesus by meeting his foster father and they even began taking an annual trip to the National Shrine of St. Joseph in DePere, Wisconsin.

I'd like to invite you to join us in our first offering of a parish-wide consecration to St. Joseph. John Karduck has shown interest in leading the weekly gatherings. The preparation for the consecration begins on February 15 and we will make public acts of consecration on March 19 followed by a huge parish wide celebration of St. Joseph complete with St. Joseph Table and everything. To find out more about what all this means and other details, stick around after each of the masses for a very short informational gathering all weekend February 6-7. If you are considering joining in on these prayers, it would be very helpful if between now and then you obtain a copy of "Consecration to St. Joseph" by Donald Calloway. We have very few of them on hand for those who are unable to get it on their own.

DON BOSCO:
THE TRUE STORY OF THE APOSTLE OF YOUTH

Ben Gazzara stars in this classic film about St. John Bosco, the beloved nineteenth century Italian priest who sought out the homeless youth of Turin to help them have a better life. He overcame incredible challenges, including the government who wanted him out of the way, an archbishop who tried to silence him, and the revolution that put a price on his head. But nothing could stop Don Bosco from rescuing the poor and outcast children to give them a home, teach them work skills, and catechize them in the Catholic Faith.

Don Bosco is the inspiring true story of a brave and holy priest whose single-handed battle to save the children of the streets inspired the formation of the Salesians, which is now a worldwide religious order that carries on his work with youth everywhere. Blessed with tremendous gifts, a creative imagination, and a great sense of humor, Bosco had a winning way with youth and was a brilliant educator. Having suffered much in his own youth and growing up without a father gave him compassion for many orphans, and his profound charity shines through in this film. His deep devotion to and trust in Our Lady was a great source of blessings and strength for his work with youth that continues to this day. Patsy Kensit and Karl Zinny also star with Gazzara, and the film was directed by Leandro Castellani.

This movie is not rated, but was created with an adult audience in mind. We would recommend Parental Guidance and that parents preview it before watching with children.

Our Parish has a FORMED subscription. Visit formed.org/signup to sign up.
